- * Mochi, you are the best diabolo artist in the world and we are SO lucky to have you on America's Got Talent! - Heidi Klum
- * Basically, it's a big yo-yo. And to make that interesting, which is what you did, was incredible. - Simon Cowell
- * It's precision, it's perfect, you NEED to to be in the finals! - Howie Mandel
- * I absolutely do think that you are super talented. - Mel B

With a standout performance as one of Season 13's Top 36 acts on the hit TV show America's Got Talent by Yusaku Mochizuki (Mochi) the bar has been raised even higher for the the world's top diabolo performer.

Biography

With thrilling showmanship, Yusaku Mochizuki raises the bar of live performance: incorporating tap dance, video art, LED diabolos, digital poi sticks, and more, he is an outstanding entertainer for the 21st century.

World Champion performer Yusaku Mochizuki started juggling in his hometown of Shizuoka, Japan in 2001 when he was 13 years old, and now he works actively presenting his creative work as an artist all over the world on TV and at festivals, theaters, corporate functions, and events worldwide.

For him, juggling is an essential base to express himself that merges art, sports, and performing arts.

Within the world of juggling, Yusaku Mochizuki specializes in the diabolo, noted for his characteristically precise control and sense of extreme speed in his performances.

Moreover, he has taken juggling beyond the circus and the street, experimenting with performances using video and performing on television and on many of the greatest stages and performing arts centers in the world, such as at the Festival du Cannes, the America' s Got Talent, the IJA World Juggling Competition, and the World circus competition "Cirque du Demain" .

In 2015 Yusaku Mochizuki achieved his dream, winning gold at the International Jugglers' Association world championship and thereby officially becoming the world' s top diabolo artist.
